Ike Pledges to Work For School-Building Program

Adlai Tries Party Instead of Personal Appeal For Votes

WITH STEVENSON IN OHIO, (AP)—Adlai E. Stevenson attacked the Eisenhower administration today as a "single interest government" he said must be ousted by "election of the Democratic party."

The Democratic presidential nominee thus wrapped up a new attack on President Eisenhower in the same package with his own obvious shift in campaign tactics toward a party—rather than a personal—appeal for votes.

Stevenson said in a speech prepared for a late afternoon rally in Akron, Ohio, Eisenhower has a "Cadillac Cabinet" that "fears nothing as much as change." He added that the people "will carry forward again when the present Cabinet is back in General Motors next January.'

"If Mr. Eisenhower didn't want his administration called a big business single interest government, why did he ever join the Republican party?" Sttvenson demanded.

Tries New Tactics

This fresh attack on what he called the "creeping complacency" of the Republicans fitted in deeply with Stevenson's new tactics—which developed in a whistle-stop swing through Michigan Wednesday to submerge his own presidential aspirations under a strong appeal for Democratic party votes that might carry him on the coattails of well-liked local candidates to victory in doubtful states.

Significantly, Stevenson told an audience which did not fill a 6,200-seat auditorium in Flint, Mich., Wednesday nght: "I submit to you that the times call for the election of the Democratic party."

Earlier he had told a small train-side audience in Saginaw, Mich., that perhaps no president in history had enjoyed the popularity he said Eisenhower had held in four years.

With a trace of exasperation in his voice, he said, "Certainly, no administration in history has enjoyed such immunity from criticism" as Eisenhower's.

Then, in the manner of former President Harry S. Truman's now traditional Democratic "give 'em hell" tactics of 1948, Stevenson

Scientist Says Nuclear Fall-Out 'Insignificant'

Former Research Chief Warns Against Letting Russians Pull Ahead

WASHINGTON (AP) — A former medical research chief for the Atomic Energy Commission says nuclear tests have produced only an "insignificant" amount of a substance Adlai Stevenson terms "the most dreadful poison."

The commission made public late Wednesday a telegram from Dr. Shields Warren, head of its division of biology and medicine from early AEC days until mid-1952, in which Warren said some statements Stevenson made regarding strontium-90 "should be corrected."

In connection with Stevenson's call for this country to take the lead in working toward an end of hydrogen bomb tests, Dr. Warren said in a telegram to AEC Chairman Lewis L. Strauss:

"To permit us to fall behind (the) Russians is disastrous; to wait for them to catch up to us is stupid."

Dr. Warren said that from a genetic standpoint, "radioactive fall-out including strontium-90 has given only small dose to date, as compared with dose from naturally occurring and hence unavoidable background radiation."

"If weapons testing continues at present rate for 30 years," he continued, "genetic dose (would be) still insignificant. . ."

2 Trains Collide, 4 Crewmen Die

4 Others Hurt As Freights Crash

PINEOLA, Fla. (AP) —Two Atlantic Coast Line freight tranis raced down a straightaway stretch into a headon collision today, killing 4 out of 10 crewmen aboard and injuring 4 others.

Cars immediately behind the two diesel engines piled up and broke into flames after the crash, trapping two of the men inside. Their charred bodies were recovered later.

Cause Not Determined

Cause of the 6 a. m. collision on the ACL's main line near the Pineola Depot was not determined immediately.

"It's a scrambled-up mess," said John Purcell, an ambulance driver for the Garnet Funeral Home at Brooksville, who took the four injured men to a hospital.

"The engines and the cars just behind them are all tangled up together."

Two of the dead men were taken to the Porter Funeral Home at Inverness and the others to the Roberts Funeral Home in Ocala.

Two Bodies Removed

Two bodies were removed from the wreck shortly after the collision but the others were not recovered until flames were extinguished in the car in which they were trapped.

Firemen from Bushnell and Brooksville fought the blaze.

Pineola is 60 miles north of Tampa.

The dead were identified as B. T. Martin, engineer from High Springs, Fla.; E W Vaughn, fireman from High Springs; J. L. Phillips, brakeman from Lakeland Fla., and W. E. Snyder, brakeman from Lakeland.

Martin, Vaughn and Phillips were members of the crew on the southbound freight. Snyder was on the northbound freight.

Russia Ready To OK Halt Of Nuclear Tests

U. N. Delegate Says This Could Be First Step To Disarmament

UNITED NATIONS, N. Y. (AP)—Soviet delegate Arkady A. Sobolev said Wednesday the Soviet Union is ready to agree with the United States and Britain on an immediate, unconditioned halt to test explosions of nuclear weapons.

Sobolev made the statement to a reporter in answer to a question on Russia's current stand on the question of test explosions.

He said nothing about the political controversy between Adlai Stevenson, Democratic presidential nominee who has proposed negotiating a halt on H-bomb tests, and President Eisenhower, Republican nominee who has rejected stevenson's ideas.

U.S. Wants Safeguards

The U.S. position in U. N. disarmament talks is that any ban on test blasts must be part of a comprehensive disarmament plan with adequate controls and safeguards.

"The Soviet Union is ready to enter now into an agreement with the other powers for an immediate halt to the test explosions of nuclear weapons without conditions," Sobolev said. "We believe this might be the first step toward a system of disarmament and eventual prohibition of the nuclear weapons."

Mentioned Only H-Bomb

Stevenson has mentioned only the hydrogen bomb in his speeches calling for a halt to test explosions. But Sobolev siad the Russian position applies to all nuclear weapons.

Stevenson has made the point that: "The testing of an H-bomb anywhere can be quickly detected. You can't hide the explosion any more than you can hide an earthquake."

RESEMBLING A BOMBED-OUT BUILDING, the old First Baptist Church at the corner of State and S. Lincoln Ave. gradually crumbles to the ground under the blows of the wrecker's ax. The 84-year-old edifice which is now occupied by the American Legion for a post home is being remodeled for the city's Village Green sesquicentennial project. A total of $42,000 has been contributed for the downtown park site. The Historical Society has title to the park site. The Legion will retain the back portion of the building for its quarters.

Accuses Adlai Of Telling U. S. 'Political Fables'

Crowds Wildly Cheer As President Strongly Lashes At Stevenson

TACOMA, Wash. (AP)—President Eisenhower pledged today to work for a school - building program geared to "this atomic age." He did so after accusing Adlai Stevenson of telling the American people "political fables" in the campaign.

In a speech prepared for delivery at a Citizens for Eisenhower rally at the College of Puget Sound, the President said he would not go into reasons why there was no action on his five-year school program at the last session of the Democratic - controlled 84h Congress. But he promised:

"I shall again call upon the Congress to act at the beginning of the next session. I shall support this request with all the force at my command."

House Killed Bill

The House last July 5 killed a bill that would have authorized $1,600,000,000 in federal aid tc the states for school construction. It did so after adopting an amendment that would have denied money to areas which did not comply with the Supreme Court's decision outlawing segregation of Negro and white pupils.

Eisenhower called it essential that America's youth be prepared "to be skilled and accomplished citizens—able to grasp the great levers, turn the giant wheels, of this new atomic age as nature finally surrenders to men so many of its colossal secrets."

The President, in the third day of a West Coast vote-seeking tour, spoke afer spending the night in suburban Tacoma.

It was in an address Wednesday night in nearby Seattle that he charged that Stevenson, the Democratic presidential nominee, has been telling the voters "political fables" instead of dealing with "the world of reality."

Audience Cheers Wildly

Wildly cheered by his audience there, Eisenhower blasted harder than ever at his opponent. He stood by his policy of avoiding mention of Stevenson by name, but there was no doubt about the target.

The President referred to his rival at one point as "the opposition candidate," one of his most direct allusions since the start of the campaign.

Work Pushed On Park Ice Skating Rink

Grading work is being completed at the city's Memorial Park grounds in preparation for an ice skating rink this winter and three ball diamonds for use in the spring, according to Lee Burton, superintendent of parks and recreation.

The ice skating rink has been leveled and graded down, and will possibly be in better condition for skating this year than last.

In the spring the rink will be used as a ball diamond. Two new ball diamonds to the east of the rink are being seeded and leveled.

The three ball diamonds may be used only for Little League play if a schedule can be worked out, Burton said.

Another improvement in baseball grounds may be the placing of dugouts at Kelley Park for the adult softball leagues in the spring.

Bender Labels Lausche A 'Liar'

Senator Denies Having Huge Campaign Fund

By The Associated Press

Sen. George H. Bender, Republican candidate for re-election, Wednesday night labeled his Democratic opponent, Gov. Frank J. Lausche, a "liar" in the strongest statement yet made in a bitterly fought campaign.

"He (Lausche) is lying," Bender said, "when he says or infers that I have $500,000 to spend (for campaigning) and he is lying when he says he has only $20,000."

Bender referred to remarks by Lausche Tuesday about the relative size of his and Bender's campaign funds.

Bender told a reporter in Middletown during a swing through southwestern Ohio that Lausche has a "co-partner" who "is negotiating to purchase or already has purchased $20,000 worth of television time alone.'

The GOP senator identified the co-partner as John E. Elder, a Cleveland auto registrar, but did not explain the nature of the partnership.

Attacked Lausche's Record

In a statement released in Cleveland, and later in a speech before the Hamilton Women's Republican Club, Bender attacked the Lausche administrations record on schools, mental health and roads.

He told the women's club that Lausche has "performed miserably" as Ohio's chief executive and added:

"Ohio has the worst roads of any state. We rank 43rd among the states in mental hospitals. And our schools lack 235 million dollars in classroom space.

Lausche, in a radio-television address in Cleveland, criticized what he called "extravagance in the federal government.

The awards will be presented here Dec. 10 along with the literary prize to be announced Oct. 25 and those for physics and chemistry, which will be announced at the end of the month.

The three doctors are credited with having opened a new area in cardiology by shedding more light on virtually heart ailments.

Decrease Noted In Profits Of Country's Corporations

NEW YORK (AP) — Businessmen —not to mention stock market traders — are keeping an eagle eye today on the course of corporate profits.

The third quarter tallies are are now starting to pour in. So far they are averaging out just about neck and neck with the returns for the July, August and September period of 1955.

The days when they consistently climbed higher with each reporting period appear to have ended — at last for a time.

The price of the individual stocks has reacted quickly to the profit statements of leading corporations. In a market as hesitant as the present one the trend of profits carries even more weight than usual in making up a trader's mind on whether to sell or buy.

So far 87 corporations have reported on their net profits after taxes this summer. Some of them have fiscal years varying from the calendar one and their third quarter ended in August instead of on September 30 as the majority of corporate books do.

About 2 out of every 5 of the corporations — 35 out of the 87— report profits this summer trailing last year's third quarter. And eight of them operated at a loss.

Combined the 87 companies show three-month profits of $392,891,250. This is 0.6 per cent below the combined profits of the same 87 in the third quarter of 1955 when they to talled $395,495,783.

The picture is unusually spotty this time. Some companies are reporting increases both in sales and in profits. Others show sales totals still climbing but net earnings falling under the pressure of rising operational costs that haven't been offset by higher product prices.

And a few—example: Some in the textile industry — report shrinking profits of even net losses, reflection of the failure of their lines to share in the general good times.

The tendency for profits to shrink although industrial production and national income is still rising is shown more clearly when you compare the third quarter results with those of earlier in the year.

In the first three months of 1956 profit gains over 1955 averaged around 12 per cent. In the April, May and June period the gain over the previous period was shrinking almost to the vanishing point, although figures for the first six months—thanks to the first quarter gains—still held 5.5 per cent above the previous year.

The U. S. Department of Commerce reports that before-tax profits of the nation's corporations in the first three months of this year ran at an annual rate of 43.7 billion dollars. In the second quarter of the year they shrank to an annual rate of 42.9 billion, although still topping by 4.3 per cent the 1955 figure of 41.1 billion.

The department's report on the third quarter won't be along until the end of the year.

Businessmen—and stock traders —therefore will watch closely the next few weeks as the great flood of third quarter statemtnts flows in.

Who Cares?

By HAL BOYLE

NEW YORK (AP) — Curbstone comments of a pavement Plato:

In 1952 the ordinary voter didn't hesitate to break up a beautiful lifelong friendship over a difference in political opinon.

He was that steamed up.

But do you know of anybody who has broken any lifelong friendship as a result of the 1956 campaign? I don't.

Nineteen days from now the nation picks its next president. But the general public seems hardly more stirred by this fact than by the news that there are only 57 shopping days left before Christmas.

What has happened?

In previous presidential election years politics have always ranked as America's top participant sport, a participant sport being one in which you take part yourself — such as playing gin rummy or making love.

The great spectator sports—those at which you just sat and watched—were baseball, football and basketball. But this year politics seems to outrank them as a spectator sport. No one is playing the game but the professional politicians. The voters are on the sidelines sitting on their hands.

It wasn't that way in 1952. Remember? Everybody was in politics, and politics was in everybody. Husbands were so riled up they were even talking back to their wives.

Democrats were walking into bars offering to "lick any Republican in the place" — and any Republican within earshot was ready to call them.

In an effort to find the reason behind the publics apathy, reporters are going to "the grass roots. But the grass roots aren't saying much. They're yawning, too.

The truth seems to be that the average voters doesn't really have his dander up against anybody. He is weary of international crises and mostly interested in his own problems. He wants more peace and a bigger hunk of prosperity, but whether he plans to vote for Ike or Adlai he doesn't feel the other candidate is plotting to make him poor or take him into war. So nobody's really belly-ripping mad at anybody.

It is highly unlikely that any election loser will have to push a peanut up Pike's Peak with his nose this Nov. 7. Who feels strongly enough on the campaign to risk such a bet?

About the only things now that would wake up the electorate would be for President Eisenhower to denounce both golf and motherhood — or for Adlai Stevenson to elope with Princess Margaret of Britain.

The name of "spa" for a watering resort is derived from Spa, Belgium which is a fashionable resort for medicinal waters.

Political Victory For Ike In Minnesota Not Assured

EDITOR'S NOTE: This is another article in a series by AP's political reporters who are surveying sentiment in key states.

By DOUGLAS B. CORNELL

MINNEAPOLIS (AP) — President Eisenhower has a big but diminishing backlog of respect and popularity that may carry him to a repeat political victory in Minnesota. But by no means is it a safe bet that this will happen.

For Minnesota still has some unhappy farmers, despite the best corn and soybeans crops on record. And Eisenhower's impressive strength of 1952 clearly has been melting away.

More out of wishful thinking than firm conviction, professional politicos are making the expected claims — Democrats that the Democrats will win, Republicans that the GOP will come out on top. Yet the Republicans concede Eisenhower isn't as strong as he was four years ago and that the battle for Minnesota's 11 electoral votes is uncomfortably close.

Newsmen close to Minnesota politics speak more in terms of hunches than outright forecasts. One has a hunch the Republicans will score, another that it will be the Democrats.

The Minneapolis Tribune's Minnesota poll, which has a reputation for calling the political turns pretty accurately, reported in late September that the Eisenhower Nixon ticket was a share ahead of the Stevenson - Kefauver team in what was almost a neck and neck race.

The GOP was doing better in smaller cities and towns, the Democrats in the major cities and on the farms.

By any measuring stick, the presidential election at this point has to be rated a toss-up in a state which went for Eisenhower 763,211 to 608,485 four years ago. Eisenhower got 55.3 per cent of the votes then and a margin of 154,726.

For the first time in 10 years, Democrats outvoted the Republicans in the 1954 primary. They did it again in the presidential primary this year.

What it all adds up to in terms of votes on Nov. 6, nobody can say. The state is a real battleground.

Columbiana Council Accepts Planning Commission Idea

Ordinance Gets First Reading

Fire Protection Contract Approved

COLUMBIANA —Village council accepted on first reading Tuesday evening an ordinance providing for a planning commission for Columbiana, and approved a new contract with Fairfield Township for free protection outside the village.

The planning ordinance was accepted with one dissenting vote, that of Herbert Souder, while Walter Miller, voting yes, said his vote might be different on final passage. Charles Fisher, Clifford Orr, Gay Zellers and Arthur Myers voted in the affirmative.

Tems of the proposal remain as first ntroduced except wh he addiion of a $500 lmi on annual expenditures, although all expenditures and appointments are subject to council approval.

The commission of five members to be chosen by council would serve six-year terms without pay, two of the initial appointments to be two and four years to provide for rotation of new members.

COUNCIL accepted a proposal from State Highway Director S. O. Linzell for two tdaffic lights on the Route 14 by-pass, one at the Route 46 intersection in addition to the one now at Route 164. The state will place the lights and the village provide for their maintenance and operation. Linzell wrote that with completion of the by-pass extension west, the added light will be needed at Route 46.

The ordinance renewing the contract under which the village provides fire protection for Fairfield township outside the village was passed. Township Trustees E. B. McCamon and Hugh Farmer were present and took excpetion to the annual minimum charge of $850, an advance of $350 over the $500 minimum in he present contract, which will expire Oct. 31.

Members of council said the present rates are based on conditions as they were nearly 20 years ago.

The charge for each pumper responding to an alarm will be $60, a raise of $10, and for firemen $2.50 an hour, a raise of 25 cents. The charge of each emergency car responding remains at $10. Fire Chief Donald Hisey pointed out that charges of neighboring towns for outside protection is much higher than this contract. Fairfield township calls usually exceed the minimum charge anyway.

Chairman Gay Zellers of the safety committee reported a recommendation for one-way traffic in the alley south from E. Friend St. to Felger Court and west to Main St. to relieve congestion at Felger Court and Main St. Action was deferred for further study of the situation.

The committee also recommended hiring another full-time patrolman to help curb speeding, which will receive further consideration at the next meeting. A further recommendation urged study of sick leave and paid vacation provisions for village employes and the introduction of stystem so that there may be no misunderstandings. An ordinance of August 6, 1947, provides one week vacation with pay for two- and three-year employes, and two weeks with pay for four or more years.

Purchase of 36 daincoas for auxiliary police for $214.20 through Director George Seederly was authorized.

THE BOARD of affairs was authorized to purchase three capacitors, to be installed in different parts of town to regulate the electric current load at a cost of about $3,200.

On request of Chairman K. T. Gormley of the park board, a meeting of all village boards will be held Tuesday evening, Oct. 30, to determine ownership and maintenance responsibility for poles and lights in Firestone Park. There remains due the village from the school athletic association a balance on the stadium lights.

Chairman Clifford Orr of the street committee reported that an engineer had completed a survey of Sixth St. drainage as part of a plan to relieve storm water conditions on Seventh St.

Chief of Police William McGuckin was authorized to attend the state attorney general's crime conference for sherrifs, prosecutors and policemen in Cleveland, Oct. 26 and 27, with the usual expense allowances.

Fall clean-up day was officially set for next Thursday, Oct. 25.

Street Commissioner Carl Spratt was authorized to buy a new bucket for the high lift at a cost of about $134 and to get prices on a new air compressor.

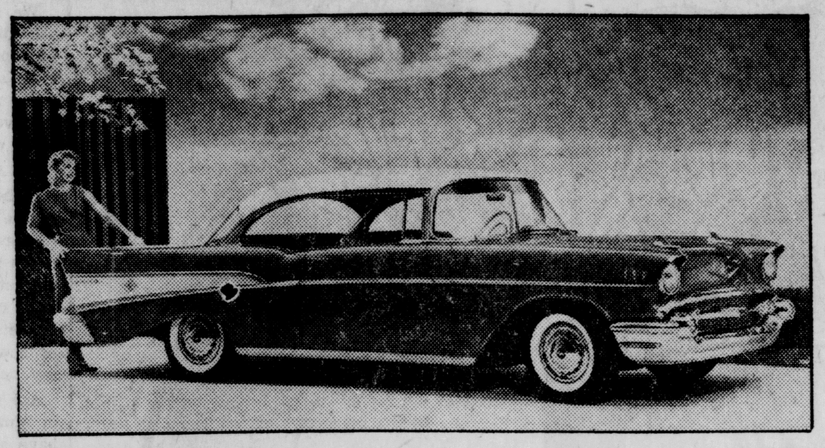

Columbiana Garden Club, at its October meeting at the home of Mrs. Lee Bookwalter, 462 N. Main St., Tuesday afternoon, made "winter gardens" to be distributed to shut-ins about town and some of the rest homes. Officers elected were: Mrs. Willard Hetric, president; Mrs. T. A. King, vice president; Mrs. William Arbuckle, recording secretary; Mrs. M. H. Pursifull, cordesponding secretary; Mrs. John Backstrom, treasurer. Mrs. Elmer Detwiler Jr. was cohostess.

Kindergarten Mothers' Club met at Dixon School, Tuesday evening, and made preparation for the Halloween party for the children at the school, Wednesday, Oct. 31 forenoon and afternoon.

MAKES FAKE DRAFT CARDS

CINCINNATI (AP)—Police Wednesday arrested Paul Curtis, 18, of Cincinnati, who, they said, had been selling "false draft cards" to juveniles.

Investigators said Curtis made reproductions of his own draft card using a photostat machine where he worked. Police quoted Curtis saying his "customers" wanted the cards for proof of age for leaving school and getting jobs.

NEW 1957 CHEVROLET.—Longer, lower "in motion" emphasis on design of Chevrolet's three series of passenger cars for 1957 is evident in this view (above) of the new Bel Air sport coupe. Along with exciting exterior and interior styling, a higher performance peak and marked mechanical advances are among the features.

Fuel injection and a new triple-turbine automatic transmission will make their debut on the '57 Chevrolets Friday. While two and one-half inches have been added to overall lengths, the horizontal sweep of new styling motif gives the impression that the car is even longer. All bodies are lower and windshield area has been increased.

House Group Reopens Probe On Nickel Plant

WASHINGTON (AP) — A House Government Operations subcommittee reopens today its investigation of the government nickle plant project in a move which three Republican members called "politics."

Called as the first witness was Randall Cremer, former project manager for a 43 million dollar expansion of the government's Nicaro, Cuba, nickel plant. Subcommittee aides said he would be asked to identify some 200 documents filmed from his confidential files.

The cry of "politics" came from the subcommittee's three Republicans, Reps. Riehlman (NY), Younger (Calif) and Krueger (ND), who in a joint telegram to subcommittee chairman Jack Brooks (D-Tex), protested the reopening of the hearing "three weeks before a national election when a majority of your colleagues, including both Democrats and Republicans, cannot be present."

Brooks has said some of the documents from Cremer's files "strongly indicate that contractors of the Nicaro expansion had to qualify as political supporters of the present administration. . . ."

The current hearing, expected to run two days, is a resumption of an inquiry earlier this year.

At that time, Democrats contended testimony indicated "political and private influence" had figured in the expansion program. Republican members issued a "blanket rejection" of the charge and accused the majority of "an amazing suppression of evidence."

The 1954 expansion was carried out under a construction subcontract given jointly to Frederick Snare Corp., of which Cremer was then a vice president, and Merritt-Chapman & Scott. Each received a half million dollar fee under the cost-plus contract.

Merritt-Chapman & Scott owns the Marion Power Shovel Co., Marion, Ohio.

SLIDES USED AS EVIDENCE

AKRON, Ohio (AP)—For the first time in the history of Summit County Common Pleas Court, colored slide films were admitted as evidence Wednesday.

The slides purported to show the results of a rape and maiming attack. On trial was Joseph Russo, 34, charged with assaulting Mrs. Dorothy Ashton, 27, in a parked car last April 29.

10,000 WORKERS NEEDED

CLEVELAND (AP) — The Ohio State Employment Service Wednesday announced about 10,000 seasonal workers are needed to handle the Christmas rush in department stores in the Cleveland area.

The OSES said never before had so many stores urgently requested store clerks, truck drivers and other part time help. The agency said it is sending out thousands of letters to housewives, students and retired workers in trying to line up help.

Tranquilizing Drugs May Answer Postman's Prayer

SAN ANTONIO, Tex. (AP) — Dr. Jack Knowles, a Miami, Fla., veterinarian, thinks the tranquilizing drugs may be the answer to the postman's prayer. He told the American Medical Veterinary Assn. that use of the "happiness pills" to transform mean mutts into docile dogs is growing. They seem to work better on dogs than on humans, he said, but not on cats—"Cats are unpredictable."

We Like Ike's Ideas

Pollsters and pulse-feelers all report the same thing — that the American people still "like Ike."

The President's likeable personality has lost none of its dynamic force since the Eisenhower candidacy swept the country in 1952. The people's red-hot resentment of Harry Truman's administration and the "mess in Washington," however, has cooled off.

They voted against something they didn't like in 1952 because in Dwight Eisenhower they had an attractive alternative — something they did like.

And they still "like Ike."

The difference is that in 1956 they have accumulated minor resentments against the Eisenhower administration.

Farmers are sore because subsidy-stimulated surpluses depressed farm prices, just as Ezra Taft Benon said they would.

Unionist leaders are growling because the Eisenhower administration feels responsible for refereeing all the players in the labor-management contests—not just the managers.

The technological-unemployed are peeved because history's highest rate of employment isn't high enough to wipe oue unemployment altogether.

Taxpayers are disgruntled because of the high price of meeting the demands they make on government; i.e., maximum security, maximum services, maximum aid for highways, aid for schools, aid for their old maid aunts.

Oil and gas operators are displeased because President Eisenhower rebuked them for overlobbying a bill they wanted by vetoing it.

Creeping socializers are mad enough to spit.

Housewives are raising their eyebrows over the cost of living, which reflects the ever-rising wage scale.

Carpers are unhappy because John Foster Dulles can't stop international bickering.

There never is any lack of grievances against an administration in power. But in this instance, there are no big grievances.

Besides "liking Ike," moreover, most people like Ike's ideas about being president of all the people. They like his spunk, his way of doing things, his composure, his dignity.

There is one thing in particular we like.

We like Ike's ideas about the government of the United States. It is government, after all, that should be the issue in a presidential campaign, not which party is willing to give away more of the people's money faster.

For the first time in history, the executive department is manned from top to bottom with professional administrators who have spent a lifetime learning how to administer. There has been an unprecedented delegation of authority because there has been an unprecedented quality of personnel to whom authority could be delegated. The quality is a tribute to Dwight Eisenhower's prestige.

The cvabinet system never has been more efficient. Observers have pointed out that President Eisenhower's improvements in it will be adopted as the permanent pattern of federal administration for the future.

We like that as well as we like Ike.

It is government we pay for and hope to get when we support a national administration. Under President Eisenhower we're getting it.

The Unknown Candidates

The Associated Press has reported a mixup in Pittsburgh, where Sen. John F. Kennedy of Massachusetts was referred to first as Sen. Wagner of New York, then as Sen. John Fitzgerald of points unknown before his local hosts at a banquet unscrambled their thoughts.

This happens all the time to the symbols of government and public life, and the reason is clear. It is because the symbols are more important than the men and women behind them, especially in election years.

The same thing is true of the people that public figures mingle with and the communities they visit. The people, instead of being individuals, turn into masses and minorities. The communities, instead of being places where people work together and share triumphs and disappointments, are strategical courses of votes.

Fortunately, it all comes to an end in its own good time. The men and women lay aside their symbolism and become personalities again. Members of the U.S. Senate put their arms around each other's shoulders and stroll to the lunch room. Voters quit being Demoracts and Republicans and become citizens again.

Sen. Kennedy may have lunch some day with Sen. John Fitzgerald of points unknown, if he can find him. Or with young Bob Wagner, if Wagner turns out to be the new New York senator, instead of a Republican contender named Jacob K. Javits, who symbolizes something else. In that event, Sen. Kennery could have lunch with Javits.

Stevenson's Bungle

Facts On H-Bomb Tests Distorted

Lawrence

A call for the withdrawal of Adlai Stevenson as the presidential nominee of the Democratic party and the naming of a replacement by the Democratic National Commitee would surely develop if Democrats generally throughout the country fully understood how official facts about nuclear-bomb tests are being distorted in the belief the public will not grasp the truth. The alarmist speech delivered by Mr. Stevenson Monday night to a nationwide television audience was a deliberate maneuver to scare the country, in spite of official evidence to the contrary about the lack of danger to the people as a whole in the tests.

The National Academy of Sciences, in a recent report made by 150 of the nation's highest level scientists — the most reputable body of men in the scientific world — declared that biological damage from the testing of atomic bombs "has been essentially negligible."

The same report said radioactivity from medical and dental X-rays is far more extensive than all the tests from H-bombs could be for 30 years to come. Is Mr. Stevenson against all dental X-rays?

To try to win an election by attempting to frighten the electorate and at the same time to urge the taking of chances with American security at a critical time in history is an offense the equal of which no candidate for the presidency has ever committed.

If, as Mr. Stevenson concedes in one part of his speech, the Russians cannot be trusted to keep an agreement, why stop American tests of the superbombs at all? Why give the Communists an advantage of several months — or even a few weeks?

THERE ARE several contradictory passages in the Stevenson speech which will make many voters wonder what kind of mind the Democratic party nominee has and what sort of judgment they can expect from the man who aspires to be commander-in-chief of the army, the navy and the air force.

Under existing law, Mr. Stevenson, if elected president, would have sole authority over what to do with superbombs and whether to use them at all.

He would, of course, have no authority over the evil men in the Kremlin or any way of knowing their intent.

Yet, in one part of his speech, he says he wouldn't trust them and in another part he is willing to take a chance and wait and see.

In the first part of the speech, Mr. Stevenson rightly says, "We have learned that unilateral disarmament invites rather than deters aggression." But he goes ahead, nevertheless, to defend the idea of unilateral or one-sided abandonment of tests not far different in effect from what he proposed last April in a public speech in Washington before the American Society of Newspaper Editors.

Mr. Stevenson admits that "until there is worldwide agreement on an effective system of balanced arms reductions with adequate safeguards," the United States must maintain its defenses. He then adds:

"All our efforts to work out any safe, reliable, effective system of inspection to prevent evasion of arms agreements have been blocked by the Soviet rulers. They will not agree to let us inspect them; we cannot agree to disarm unless we can inspect them. And the matter has been deadlocked there fore eleven years."

BUT FURTHER on in the same speech the Democratic nominee returns to the idea of a one-sided discontinuance of H-bomb tests by anticipating a broken pledge by the Russians. He says:

"In short, H-bomb testing requires no inspection. We will know it when it happens anywhere, and by studying the dust from that explosion we can determine what progress the other country has made. This means that if any country broke its pledge we would know it and could promptly resume our testing."

But why take any chances, especially since officials of the Atomic Energy Commission say it takes many months — and not a few weeks — to make preparations for H-bomb tests?

There is some evidence, too, that tests can be concealed. Mr. Stevenson himself isn't sure that any good would come from abandoning our tests while the Russians, even though pledged not to do any testing, failed to keep their word. He said toward the end of his Monday night speech:

"In the meantime — frankly because bitter experience has proved that we cannot rely even on the firm agreement of one bloc of world powers — we will proceed both with the production of hydrogen weapons and with further research in the field."

Then why trust theCommunists now? Also, what is meant by "further research"? Scientists say research without tests is not adequate.

Mr. Stevenson has been misled by his "left-wing advisers into the worst bungle in modern politics.

He is gambling that the public will not understand or give weight to the truth as revealed to them by the highest standing scientists of the country.

He evidently believes the people will accept as truth the stump speeches of a candidate who is willing to make almost any claim in the hope of getting elected.

It is a fantastic gamble — a curious idea of the credulity of the American people.

Financial Indigestion

By SAM DAWSON

NEW YORK (AP) — Odd thing about today's good times is how so many of the world's troubles here and abroad are being laid to it.

The rich diet — pleasant and tasty for most—is blamed for a number of cases of industrial and financial indigestion.

In the U. S. businessmen are so pleased with the present prosperity and so confident of even better things to come that they are rushing to expand.

Some warn that these plans may prove too big for the nation's economy to support if industries try to crowd all of them in at once.

The first pangs of indigestion have been diagnosed as tight money.

Demand for record financing and for a huge supply of materials for new plants and equipment has strained the capacity of the banks and investors. So financing has been hard to find in some cases and more expensive in all cases.

The good times that encouraged a host of newly prosperous citiens to take on a home of their own, complete with mortgage, have spawned a lot of troubles for cities and suburbs and traffic enginers.

Straining to supply this host of new home owners with water and electricity, with sewers and streets, with schools and hospitals has brought major headaches. And state and local governments trying to find the funds to meet their problems have run smack into the high cost of borrowing.

The standard of living has risen markedly—to every one's delight. But some now complain that their present paychecks seem barely to cover the payments on all the good things they enjoy, and to hold out little hope of providing all the other things they now feel they must have.

The urge to borrow for these things, to find money to finance more mortgages, puts the citizen in a competitive race with the corporations and the government also seeking funds to keep up with the good times.

Abroad there have been some variations on this story.

For months the English enjoyed full employment and rising incomes. People have used their new found wealth to buy the gadgets that 10 years ago they'd never have dreamed of owning. Prices have risen with wages. But what worries the English government is that the English people have been snapping up the goods that the government wants manufacturers to peddle in world markets. And the domestic demand for goods has led the factories to import materials at a faster rate than British finished goods are exported. The result has been inflation and a financial crisis for the government.

In France industrial prosperity has led to a price structure so high that French goods are finding world markets hard to crack.

Quadrennial Sack Race

New Ideas Lacking In Campaign

By JAMES MARLOW

WASHINGTON (AP) — There is a twinship between President Eisenhower and Adlai Stevenson not only in the promises they make but in the lack of new ideas in this campaign.

Eisenhower has offered no new ideas at all. Neither has Stevenson with two possible exceptions: on the H-bomb and school aid. Eisenhower is vaguer on his promises although Stevenson in most cases is pretty vague too.

An American who looks at the two parties with fixed prejudices or new enthusiasms may feel he discerns big differences between the men. To an impartial European this election may look like a choice between two managers for the same store.

On foreign affairs Eisenhower and Stevenson basically see eye to eye on a need for alliances and continued foreign aid.

And on one of the really fiery issues of the day — getting the South to accept the Supreme Court's ruling against public school segregation — both men have expressed only platitudes. Neither has offered a program or a solution.

On this issue Stevenson has taken a little stronger stand than Eisenhower: he at least says he approves the court's decision. Eisenhower, asked several times if he endorses the decision, has never said he did but must, as president, back it up.

Eisenhower — whose theme is peace, prosperity and progress — of the Democrats, belittles the Re-Democrats, promises to expand existing programs or get action on measures previously introduced in Congress but not yet approved.

Stevenson — with no White House record of his own— points with pride to past performances of the Democrats, belittles the Republicans, and in general makes the same kind of promises as Eisenhower: expansion and action on measures already discussed.

One notable difference between the two men is in their farm programs: Eisenhower assures the farmers they'll make out fine under his flexible price support policy; Stevenson says they'll do better with higher rigid supports.

Eisenhower so far has not gone into details on anything he's promised. Stevenson has gone into detail on three programs: health, education, and older people.

If two of Stevenson's ideas can be considered new, these are the ones:

1. He was proposed the United States take the lead toward ending H-bomb tests. If he is suggesting they be ended without ironclad agreement with Russia to do the same, that would be new. But it still is not clear precisely what he has in mind.

2. Instead of offering the kind of school aid bill debated in Congress this year — to give states money only for building schools — Stevenson suggests federal aid to meet various needs of the state. For example: one might need money to train teachers more than to build schools.

Eisenhower and Stevenson, as is usual in a campaign, have exaggerated the differences between them and between their parties. But the general similarity of their programs can be seen from this list which both have proposed:

Erasing the schoolroom shortage; prosperity for the farmers, although by different methods; medical research; housing; jobs for older people; steps to ease unemployment; soil conservation; water resources development and new supplies of power; special laws to protect small business men; peaceful use of atomic energy.

Burning Leaves

By TRUMAN TWILL

Is it recollection that gives the smell of burning leaves its wallop, or is there something intrinsic in the smell itself?

If it is recollection, is it confined to one lifetime, or is it something carried over from the dim past — like the recollection that makes a 20th century house dog go through the motions of making a nest before lying down?

This bothers me whenever the pungent odor of burning leaves fills the air on autumn evenings. You are driving home in the dusk, say, with no nostalgic thoughts in mind—nothing but left-over fragments of the work you have been doing all day. You get a whiff of a leaf bonfire and there it is again . . .

All the sweet pain of recollection running back to times and things so distant you cannot catalog them. Is it the same thing that causes a hunting dog that never has tracked a rabbit to know what the smell of a rabbit means? Or is it merely that the odor of leaves being consumed by fire is an olfactory reminder of autumn in your own life?

The more I think about this the more I am inclined to believe it is recollection that reaches back into remote time, like the smell of spring in May that turns winter-sluggish blood into water and causes strange and wonderful things to happen to the human mind.

It must be the smell itself that stimulates the reaction, not the season in which it occurs. I have experienced it in spring and the summer when leaves were being burned. To the best of my knowledge, the reaction was a potent when I was a child as it is now, when I possess autumn thoughts accumulated in my lifetime.

There are other odors that commonly go with autumn which are only slightly less stimulating—dying grass wet down with dew, wood smoke on frosty nights, the boosky perfume of wood lots on autumn mid-days.

These to must be olfactory reference points in man's formless recollections of his past—stimuli that revive unknown and unknowable patterns in the complexity of his brain—things that prompt him to bay at the moon without knowing why or having any way to find out.

Perhaps the lower animals with no conscious recollection and no ability to wonder why are more fortunate than man in this respect. They merely obey their instincts and bay for the pleasure they get out of it. Or they mope or frolic, yielding unresistingly and happily to the world that surrounds them.

When leaves fall, they roll in them. When spring comes, they take their ease under a tree beside the peaceful waters.

And when the inner prompting comes, they bay at the moon. They don't know why and they don't care.

Me, I wonder about the pungent odor of burning leaves and what it does to me via my witching nose.

It's wonderful.

Once Over

By H. I. PHILLIPS

The Duscus Hurler And The Hats

We feel better about the world peace, now that the case of the Russian woman discus champion, charged with hooking five fall hats from a London hat shop, has been settled.

We were worried almost as much over this as over the Suez crisis and had moments when we feared Moscow would nationalize millinery establishments.

If the Nobel Peace Award doesn't go to Magistrate Clyde Wilson of London, he should be runner-up. Magistrate Wilson showed by his decision that he's a man who appreciates world tensions and realizes that few things can cause more trouble anywhere than the issue of female bonnets, especially when it involves the matter of how far a woman can go to get one, to say nothing of five.

Any stern and arbitrary decision by the court in Mme. Nina Ponomareva's case might well have stymied world peace efforts and caused countless small wars in every neighborhood.

A woman's reaction to a display of new hats is always extreme. She becomes a different person. Not many plunge into a life of crime, but an array of new styles can arouse a larceneus instinct in the most proper and circumspect doll.

SHE CAN BECOME giddy and irresponsible. It is most difficult to steal a hat, however, and quite a feat to get away with five.

This gives rise to a question America must face: Are the Soviets far ahead of us in hat securance techniques? It may be that they have developed a technique (especially after an arrest) which the Free World lacks.

This is indicated by the Moscow action in describing a simple arrest of a woman wth five hats as a "dirty provocation to worsen international relations." The Russian striking power at floorwalkers, saleswomen and hat-store detectives is tremendous.

No other nation has retaliated with such force against a situation involving women and their weaknesses so far as millinery is concerned.

The five hats in question were valued at $4.68, the dispatches say. Which brings from millions of American women the cry, "Five hats for less than a dollar each!!! What were they like?"

Anyhow Magistrate Wilson is a great man. He freed Nina, asking her to pay merely $8 costs of the proceedings with the wisest of words, "We must recognize the fallibilities of human nature. Hats are a considerable temptation to all women."

Mme. Nina is back in Russia and in the Olympic Games may establish new records as the best discus thrower ever to have hat trouble. She could perhaps break all discus records by closing her eyes, concentrating on a London hat shop, and letting the discus go "POW!"

CASEY STENGEL has been re-signed by the Yanks for two years at around $80,000 a year... How about a poem "Casey At the BANK"?

A genuine treat enjoyed by TV fans was to see Ed Wynn, known all his life as a great clown, play a serious role with his son Keenan, and do it in a manner that revealed him as an all-around actor of unlimited capacities.

We just heard of the most pathetic case in the Columbus Day parades: The grand marshal who GOT LOST ON THE JOURNEY!!!

Some of the bitter attacks by Democratic candidates would indicate they are wearing "I SPIKE IKE" buttons.

John Kieran, Jr., who only yesterday was listening to his dad on radio, is now a radio and TV writer and producer.

"Giant" is the name of Hollywood's biggest thriller and yesterday we were fascinated by the sight of a midget staring at the electric sign.

We just heard of a fellow who went to the box office of a new Broadway drama "Too Late For the Phalarope" and said, "I'm not asking for tickets; I'm asking how to pronounce it."

Our idea of a strong character is a man who got through the series telecasts without buying a razor blade or a ball point pen.

Inside Labor

By Victor Riesel

Dick Nixon went in for a haircut the other day and wound up with a political close shave. He's chuckling over it now. But it proves the dangers of campaign strategy aimed at meeting the opposition's criticism.

Victor Reisel

The vice-president was motorcading through a Tennessee city some weeks back. Suddenly he put his hand to his hair and said Pat had warned she'd leave him if he didn't have it cut.

Someone thought it would be a nice touch if Nixon dropped in on a small neighborhood barbershop and gabbed with the workingmen waiting to be tonsorialized — instead of going into some swanky place in a big hotel. They saw a tw-char shop. Nxon stopped the caravan and got out. As he headed for the unpretenious little haircut and shave joint, the reporters formed a phalanx behind him while the local police ran interference out front.

SUDDENLY THE OWNER of the barber shop was seen ripping off his white coat, rushing into his jacke and out of the "clip joint." For that's what it was. Nixon didn't know it until much later. But he had his hair cut where others got clipped.

This was a front for a bookie joint and the owner, seeing the police, thought he was being raided. So he left his helper and scrammed. Nixon got his handshake and shave in a proletarian spot anyway and mixed with the workers therein.

Nixon's decision to move among working people, of course, is his reaction to strong opposition by the labor leaders — over whose head he is appealing for votes.

The same sort of reaction to opposition is deep in Adlai Stevenson who resents Republican criticism of his "egghead" qualities and associations. So Stevenson reached for businessmen the other day.

During the last few months, Stevenson's staff has been whipping up a committee of industrialists for the candidate, to prove that his only strength is not with Walter Reuther and other labor Oct. 10, Stevenson's campaign people announced the launching of a "National Business Council for Stevenson."

IT HAD A SPONSORSHIP of 50 prominent figures "in business, finance and industry," led by William Clayton, retired Texas cotton broker, and millionaire Joe Kennedy, father of Sen. John.

Long before the campaign started, President Eisenhower deeply resented Democratic quips about the absence of intellectuals in the Republican ranks. So the President decided to personally unscramble the "eggheads." He talked to assistant president Sherman Adams. Soon they called in one Robert Roger, who has just retired as head of Radio Station WGMS, Washingtons good music station, and who is on the board of Washingtons National Symphony Orchestra.

Adams told Bob Rogers that the President wanted a committee which would stay in business long after the election. This was to be a committee to guide the Republican party and the President himself on the cultural, intellectual and philosophical fronts.

It would help the President go to the people much more frequently in the next four years than he has in the past — if elected, of course. So the committee was launched as the "Committee of the Arts and Sciences for Eisenhower (CASE)." After election, it would change the word Eisenhower to Education, leaving the same initials.

So, today in a three-room suite in an office building not far from the White House, executive director Rogers runs CASE along three strategic lines. 1-Creation of a climate. 2-Recruitment. 3-Political activity.

ROGERS POINTS OUT that while the group does not have the most powerful labor leaders, it has the most colorful. One committee member is Ralph Bellamy, president of Actors Equity. Another Eisenhower supporter is Walter Pidgeon, president of the Screen Actors Guild, according to Rogers.

There are Helen Hayes and Dean Harry Carman, professor of American history at Columbia. Heading the arts division is Dr. Howard Hanson, composer and director of the Eastman School of Music. Heading the science division is Prof. Roger Adams of the University of Illinois. Heading the education division is Dr. James Phinney Baxter, president of Williams College.

There are scores of other men and women proud to be called "eggheads" and Republicans.

This is turning out to be a scrambled campaign.

Mother Of Slain Baby To Leave Hospital

MIDDLETOWN, Conn. (AP)—The 33-year-old mother of slain infant Cynthia Ruotolo plans to leave the state mental institution today.

Mrs. Eleanor Ruotolo entered the Connecticut State Hospital voluntarily Oct. 4 after asking doctors for help with her "emotional problems."

Her 6-week - old daughter was taken from her carriage left in the foyer of a department store in Hamden Sept. 1. Five days later her body, stuffed in a plastic bag and weighted down with a rock, was found in a lake about a mile from the store.

State's Atty. Abraham S. Ullman, heading the investigation into the infant's death, said he was told Wednesday night by Mrs. Ruotolo's husband Stephen, 33, that his wife had requested release from the hospital and would go home today.

Lee Won't Proclaim United Nations Day

SALT LAKE CITY (AP)—Gov. J. Bracken Lee has once again declined to proclaim United Nations Day in Utah, electing instead to set Oct. 23 as United States Day.

But Lee adds in statement that "I am not the isolationist that some people brand me. I see nothing wrong with a world organization based on fair and equal treatment of all, but I see danger in the charter of the United Nations as now written."

Lee, seeking re-elecion as an independent after losing his third-term bid in the Republican primary, says the Korean War was a U. N. undertaking but that the Unied States furnished 90 per cent of the men and 100 per cent of the money to carry on the war.

Approximately $45 million dollars have been spent in restoring Williamsburg, Va., to its days of the American Revolution.

and secure than ever in history," He accused the Democrats of resorting to what he termed devices of "the half truth . . . the hit and run statement. . the big straddle . .the rubber yardstick."

After the Seattle speech to an overflow audience in the 6,500-seat Civic Auditorium there, the President and Mrs. Eisenhower motored to nearby Tacoma and spent the night at the home of his brother Edgar. Outside the Seattle hall an additional crowd of about 3,500 in adjacent Memorial Stadium heard Eisenhower over a public address system.

Eisenhower was introduced by Republican Gov. Arthur B. Langlie, who has a hard fight on his hands in running for the U. S. Senate against Democratic Sen. Warren Magnuson. The President put in a strong plug for Langlie, terming him "my good friend. . . of great personal integrity."

The beaming President, speaking over a statewide television and radio network, had difficulty quieting his Seattle audience so he could start his speech. He received a tremendous ovation and smiled broadly as the crowd chanted "We want Ike."

"I want you too," he said. "Your welcome reminds me how well I've been feeling for quite some time now."

From Tacoma the chief executive was flying on to Oregon for a major nationwide television address tonight (9:30 p. m., CST) from Portland's Civic Auditorium.

In his Seattle speech, Eisenhower made no mention of Stevenson's proposal that an effort be made to end H-bomb testing.

cut loose in Flint with a slashing attack on Vice President Nixon and former Gov. Thomas E. Dewey of New York.

Dewey Drew More

Dewey drew about 1,500 more persons in the same hall the previous night with an attack on Stevenson's proposal to move toward the ending of hydrogen bomb tests.

Stevenson dismissed Dewey with the observation that "discourtesy, epithet and abuse from him are no surprise."

The estimate on the Dewey and Stevenson crowds was made by Paul Rewey, superintendent of the hall.

Stevenson prefaced his onslaught against Nixon with the observation that any president might be "prevented by higher will from serving his full term." Then he said Nixon's political "trademark is slander."

He depicted the vice president as a "man of many masks," asking?

"Who can say they have seen his real face?

He accused Nixon of upsetting American relations with India. He said the vice president had been "rash and inexperienced in saying two years ago that the United States might have to send troops into Indochina. In that connection, he said:

"We cannot have in high places men who talk out of both sides of their mouth, who talk loosely and irresponsibly in foreign countries, men who talk too much when they would do better to keep their mouths shut and their eyes and ears open.

More than a decade later Forssmanns idea was refined by a New York Columbia University team, headed by Dr. Cournand and including Dr. Richards, at New York's Bellevue Hospital.

Portsmouth Council To Hear Charges Of Lax Law Enforcement

Phone Exchanges To Remain Closed Awaiting 'Stern' Law Enforcement

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP)—The president of the struck Ohio Consolidated Telephone Co. says telephone service in the Portsmouth area will not be restored "until stern and forceful law enforcement is an established fact in Scioto County."

President C. E. Williams, in a prepared statement released here Wednesday night, said:

"The company is not interested in pledges and assurances from law enforcement officials that they will do their best. . . .

"Concrete evidence of adequate law enforcement must be demonstrated as a preliminary to consideration of restoration of telephone service."

The Scioto County exchanges were closed for the third time Monday night after another outbreak of vandalism against company property in the 96-day-old strike by the Communications Workers of America (CWA). The union has consistently denied responsibility for attacks against company installations and personnel.

The company first closed the exchanges Sept. 18 after a cable repair crew was attacked. They were reopened Sept. 21. Last Friday the company again closed the exchanges after a wave of cable slashings.

Monday (Oct. 15) they were reopened after Gov. Frank J. Lausche ordered the Ohio Highway Patrol into the area. The exchanges were closed again less than 10 hours later after company installations were stoned.

But Williams said "the company did not shut down the exchanges on Oct. 15. The order to close up came from the state patrol and from (Portsmouth) Chief of Police Hughie Rudity."

Meanwhile, in Portsmouth, the City Council has agred to hear citizens' complaints about alleged lax law enforcement during the recent outbreaks.

Portsmouth City Manager R. E. Layton said the council agreed to have an informal meeting tonight which will be attended by five of the city's six councilmen, Chief Rudity and Layton. The sixth councilman is out of town, Layton said.

Scioto County Sheriff Burl Justice said he also would attend the meeting and isworking on a prepared statement he will present.

The meting was called after the Voluntary Citizens Committee for Law Enforcement—organized last Saturday by local businessmen and clergymen—demanded a special council session to hear complaints that local law officers failed in their duties during Monday's disturbance.

Rudity defended his officers. He said they were hampered in efforts to deal with the crowd that assaulted the Portsmouth exchange.

"There were women and children and we couldn't use tear gas," he said. "It's hard to put your finger on someone in the back of a big crowd who is throwing rocks, because you can't get to him before he disappears. The rocks were thrown from way back."

Rudity said his department has 51 men including 30 patrolmen. Of the entire force, 16 to 18 men might be off duty at the same time and "we should have at least 50 patrolmen just to take care of our regular police work," he added.

Rudity said he believes his department is doing a good job of enforcing the law with the men it now has.

Layton said he has ben gathering first-hand reports on Monday's demonstration.

"We definitely had a riot, from what I read," he commented. "If the exchanges are opened again, we had better be ready."

He said he doubted very much that the Ohio National Guard would be called to Portsmouth.

Two guard representatives, Col. R. Herbert Eagon of Delaware and Lt. Col. Francis B. Folk of Chillicothe, have been in the area the last few days gathering information.

Col. Eagon said he has been making periodic reports to the state adjutant general.

"It is not unusual in situations where there is a civil disturbance for the adjutant general to have observers go to the scene," Col. Eagon said. "Our presence indicates nothing one way or the other as to whether or not the guard will be employed."

Gov. Lausche conferred with aides Wednesday in an attempt to find a way to restore telephone service in the Ohio River county. He said no one has asked for the guard to intervene.

While the governor was in conference, the state industrial commission opened hearings into the strike despite company refusal to attend. The company maintained the hearings infringed upon collective bargaining rights guaranteed by law.

The commission heard a statement of union grievances by J. Curtis Fletcher, CWA national director, then gave both sides another week to present additional information for the commission's consideration.

Chairman Richard W. Morse said the commission would not make a decision in the matter until after that time.

The strike began July 15 after expiration of a company - union contract. Some 18 issues are reportedly blocking agreement on a new contract.

PLANE CRASHES, PILOT HURT

CLEVELAND (AP) — Farmers in Medina, Summit and Wayne counties—hit by crop failures caused by the rainy summer—have been declared eligible for production emergency credits under the state's disaster relief program.

This was announced Wednesday by Sen. George H. Bender and Rep. William H. Ayers of the 14th district.

Bender said he was notified of the eligibility by Howard C. Goddard, Ohio director of the Farmers Home Administration. Ayers said he got the word from the office of Agriculture Secretary Ezra Taft Benson.

With the elegibility, farmers suffering crop losses can borro money a 3 per cent interest and buy grain at $1.50 a hundredweight less than the market prices.

Medal Of Honor Winner Jailed

Marine Convicted Of Drinking, Disrespect

PARRIS ISLAND, S. C. (AP) — A Marine Medal of Honor winner who held blazing hot machine guns to fight off a Red Chinese attack has been convicted by special court-martial. Sgt. Alford Lee McLaughlin was sentenced to three months hard labor, reduction to private and a $20 fine.

The unpublicized court-martial was held on this sprawling recruit training center Wednesday. McLaughlin pleaded guilty to drunkenness and unauthorized absence and was found guilty of disrespect to a superior officer and to a superior noncommissioned officer.

The 28-year-old native of Leeds, Ala., was court-martialed for an episode last March at Rome, Ga., where he was stationed with a Marine reserve outfit.

Rome police said McLaughlin was arrested after going to the home of his commanding officer, Maj. Henry A. Checklou, and threatening the officer with an automatic shotgun. He was reported to have been drinking white whisky, commonly known as corn liquor, at that time.

After the incident, Marine spokesmen said McLaughlin was sent to the Charleston Naval Hospital at Charleston, S. C., for observation.

Details of the court - martial were not released by Marine officials.

The sergeant received the nation's highest award for bravery from President Eisenhower Aug. 17, 1953. He was decorated for his defense of an outpost in Korea on the night of Sept. 4-5, 1952.

The citations said that McLaughlin — then a private first class — killed an estimated 150 Chinese Communists and wounded another 50.

Although wounded, he alternately fired two machine guns—holding one at the hip until the weapon became too hot to handle and then switching to the other.

'Inside Job' Seen In Burglary Of Jail Safe

CINCINNATI (AP)—Somebody got away with $4,579 from a safe at the Cincinnati workhouse Wednesday, and Supt. George Studt said he thinks it was "an inside job."

Officers said the safe had not been forced open. Guard Capt. Richard Lobeck said he was sure it was locked. Studt said that about $3,982 was money of the prisoners and $679 was money spent at the workhouse commissary.

Writ Seeks Release Of Convicted Slayer

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP)—A writ of habeus corpus filed Wednesday in the Second District Court of Appeals sought the release from Ohio Penitentiary of Homer Jack Dean, 45-year-old West Virginian.

Dean is serving a life term for the Dec. 10, 1947, slaying of Elmo C. Rice, Columbus real estate dealer. The writ contends Dean was convicted of first degree murder in violation of due process of law.

He was convicted of the slaying after being extradited from West Virginia where he was serving a life sentence as a habitual criminal in Moundsville State Penitentiary. He has denied being in Columbus the night of the slaying.

CONVICTED OF TAX EVASION

CLEVELAND (AP) — Joseph I. Bodner, a 42-year-old Solon trucking executive, was convicted by Federal Judge Paul C. Weick Wednesday of evading nearly $10,000 in income taxes.

Bodner faces a maximum sentence of 10 years in prison and a $20,000 fine. The government said he failed to record cash sales of paper scrap to the Acme Waste Products Co.

Nixon Stirs Up Controversy On Appearance At Cornell

PROVIDENCE, R. I. (AP)—Vice President Nixon bucked stormy weather today to campaign across southern New England against what he called "Trumanism with a Stevenson label."

Nixon again set a frankly partisan course after a nationally televised appearance Wednesday night at Cornell University. This was avowedly not part of his campaign, but nevertheless he stirred up controversy.

Although the university disclaimed any intention of endorsing a party or a candidate by arranging a collegiate editors' press conference for Nixon, Democrats said it had gotten into politics.

Cornell invited Democratic candidates to speak later.

Rain clouds rolling in from the Atlantic Wednesday night forced the vice president and his party to fly from Ithaca, N. Y., home of Cornell, to Worcester, Mass., instead of Providence. The party completed the trip by bus.

Weather permitting, Nixon was scheduled go to by motorcade today through Rhode Island and Connecticut to New York City, where he speaks tonight at the Alfred E. Smith Memorial Dinner.

In a talk prepared for stops along the way, Nixon said Democratic candidate Adlai Stevenson is "morbidly preoccupied with the economic ills, troubles and disasters, which he apparently thinks lurks behind every bush in the American scene."

One of the Cornell questioners quoted Nixon as having said former President Harry S. Truman and Democratic candidate Stevenson had been "traitors" to the high principles of the Democratic party and asked the vice president to define those principles.

Nixon said they were some of "the very principles President Eisenhower stands for today."

These, he said, were the views of Jefferson and Jackson on individual dignity, the sovereignty of states and the fear of too much power centering in the federal government.

1 Dead, 2 Hurt As Youths Fight

Violence Erupts In Chicago Park

CHICAGO (AP) — One youth was fatally shot, another was seriously wounded and a third was slashed and beaten in teen-age gang violence Wednesday night in a Southwest Side park.

Police said Fred Kruse, 18, walked into a police station shortly after the brief but violent gang fight and admitted he had fired the shots which killed Warren White, 17, and wounded Edward Melant Jr., 18.

Slashed on the face and beaten was Richard Bukovic, 19, described by police as a member of Kruse's gang. Bukovic, Kruse and four other youths were held by police without charge in connection with the shooting and fighting.

Chief of Detectives Patrick Deeley said the shooting occurred after several youths drove to the Cornell Square Park at 51st and Wood streets and approached White, Melant and Gerald Sternal, 17, who were sitting on a park bench.

Deeley said Sternal told him Kruse warned White not to move and when White advanced, Kruse fired once. Then, he added, when Melant got up, Kruse fired three more shots, two of them striking Melant. White, a high school senior, was shot in the heart and was dead on arrival at a hospital. Melant was shot in the chest and right arm.

Kruse and his companions ran to the two cars they had driven to the park but Bukovic was left behind in the park, Deeley said Sternal told him.

A dozen youths, attracted by the shots, ran to the park from a nearby candy store, Sternal's account to Deeley continued, and they grappled with Bukovic, who was slashed as they struggled. Twenty stitches were required to close Bukovic's wound.

Coach To Shuffle Salem Lineup For Wellsville Game Friday

Bruce Starts Underclassmen

Attempts Comeback From Palestine Loss

Major and minor changes in the Salem Quaker offensive and defensive units will be seen when the Salem High football team takes the field against the Wellsville Bengals Friday night at Reilly Stadium. It will be the first of four home games finishing the 1956 football season.

Still smarting from last week's 41-6 loss to Palestine, Coach Earle Bruce is hopeful that the Quakers will get back into the victory column Friday night.

The Salem backfield will be juggled with a change coming at every position. Sophomore Ralph Ehrhart, who has played well in previous games will get the nod from Coach Bruce to fill the starting left halfback slot, both offensively and defensively. Regular left half Lani Waiwaiole will move to the right half position.

Another Sophomore who has been looking up lately, Lou Slaby, will start at a linebacker spot on defense, filling in for Henry Maxim who will be sidelined with torn leg ligaments acquired in the East Palestine game. Slaby also may be utilized at fullback on offense.

Junior Jerry Stumpo will also start at linebacker along with Bill Holzworth who has tentatively been moved from the defensive right end position. Filling this vacancy will be either Jim Horn or Richard Rogers, both juniors.

Dick Reichart, also sidelined with injuries, along with Maxim may see action at tackle offensively if he is able to play Friday. Likewise, if Maxim can get his leg in shape before the kickoff time he will be given a chance to run at fullback.

Jim Meissner will direct the team from quarterback at the outset of the game, replacing Joe Bryan who will play defensively at halfback. As of now the starting fullback is somewhat of a question mark. Several possibilities prevail, but no one was named specifically.

Coach Bruce also disclosed the fact that there will be more and more underclassmen dressing for the varsity games, possibly seeing action getting the feel of big game action and playing under pressure.

Wellsville Line Unchanged

As for Al Checklers' Wellsville Bengals, they will use the starting lineup that they have gone with in previous games. Eight seniors and three juniors form the starting eleven, eight of these being lettermen back from last year.

The backfield is built around 150-pound fullback, Ray Carter, a junior who has led the team in yards gained in every game thus far. The backfield averages 150 pounds per man while the line carries an average of 165 pounds per man, which is the same as the Quakers' average.

Thus far Wellsville has won one game and dropped three—losing to Canton Lehman, Brookfield, and Midland, with a 19-0 win over highly-touted Toronto. This victory came in their second game of the year.

The Bngals have not won a game over Salem in 13 years. This year's team features a rugged and fast line, leading the way for a single wing backfield attack.

Game time is 8 p.m.

Softball Association Will Elect Officers

A Salem Softball Association meeting will be held Monday night at 8 at the Memorial Building.

Officers will be elected, and Lee Burton, superintendent of parks and recreation, will speak.

Tighe Plans To Put Fire Into Tigers

DETROIT (AP) — The Detroit Tigers, best second-half ball club in the American League in 1956, will be full of fire and vinegar from opening day in 1957 if their new manager, Jack Tighe, has his way.

Twenty-four hours after taking over his first major league managing job, Tighe today reviewed his prospects this way:

"My papers will be in shape and will stay that way. We have the basis for a good team. We should have finished in first division this past season, maybe in second place. We'll run instead of wait for the home run. There will be a curfew."

Tighe knows the club. He has been a coach for the Tigers for the past two seasons. His selection as manager to succeed Bucky Harris came as no surprise.

He was first choice of the new Tiger owners who took control the day after the season ended.

The Tiger resurgence in 1956 came with the sale of the club by the Briggs family to a syndicate of radio and television executives headed by Fred Knorr and John Fetzer.

From the start of the season to July 17, the date of the sale, Detroit had a 36-46 record. From July 17 to the end of the season the club had a 46-26 mark, best in the league.

The new owners said freely they wanted a manager that would inspire and demand fiery, aggressive play. Harris quit during the season's final week, saying he obviously didn't measure up to those qualifications.

Hutchison To Manage Cards Again In 1957

By The Associated Press

August Busch, owner of the St. Louis Cardinals, said he was pleased with field manager Fred Hutchinson and general manager Frank Lane. Both will be back next year, he said.

Elsewhere, the Baltimore Orioles cut loose three veterans late Wednesday—giving infielder Grady Hatton, outfielder Hoot Evers and southpaw Johnny Schmitz their unconditional release.

Richmond of the International League rehired Eddie Lopat, one-time New York Yankee southpaw "junkman", as manager.

And there was a report Johnny Pesky, the long-time Boston Red Sox infield star who managed Durham to second place in the Class B Carolina League this season, will manage Birmingham of the Southern Assn. in 1957. But both the Birmingham club, and Detroit, which has signed an agreement with the Barons, denied a new manager has been selected.

Don January Captures Clambake Golf Tourney

APPLE VALLEY, Calif. (AP)—Don January of Lampasas, Tex., won the $5,000 Apple Valley Clambake golf tournament Wednesday with a seven-under-par 32-32—64, giving him a 130 total for the 36 holes.

Dow Finsterwald of Bedford Heights, Ohio, finished with a blazing 31-32—63 to tie for second at 136 with Ernie Vossler, Midland, Tex., and Bill Trombley, Dallas. Finsterwald's mark set a new course record. January, having set old the record the day before with a 66.

Players Plead Innocent To Petty Theft Charges

LOS ANGELES (AP)—Two UCLA football players have pleaded innocent to petty theft charges.

Court trial of Gerry McDougall, 21, Bruin tailback, and Richard E. Molen, 23, former freshman gridder, was set Wednesday for Nov. 28.

The pair denied taking a phonograph and a radio from a woman's apartment and stealing money from coeds' purses at a fraternity dance. They are free on $500 bond.

Future Foes Fear Irish

Notre Dame Causes Concern For Spartans

By CHARLES CHAMBERLAIN

SOUTH BEND, Ind. (AP) — Rival football coaches are viewing Notre Dame as they would a volcano which at any moment will erupt.

That's how unused they are to seeing the Irish lose.

Duffy Daugherty, whose unbeaten Michigan State Spartans invade Notre Dame Saturday, sums it up this way:

"Some time before this season is out, Notre Dame is going to become a great team. I just hope it doesn't happen Saturday.

Against MSU, ranked No. 2 nationally and pressing Oklahoma for top recognition. Irish coach Terry Brennan will field one of the greenest teams in the school's history.

For the first time since the Southern California game of 1952, Notre Dame will appear at a kickoff as an underdog. The Spartans are listed 14 or 15-point favorites.

There is great incentive for an upset in the regionally-televised engagement, for th Irish have bowed to MSU in four of their last five games.

In Brennan's head coaching debut last year, the Spartans won 21-7. The Irish's only other loss in 10 starts in 1956 was 42-20 to Southern California in the season finale.

The Irish this fall have a 1-2 record, dropping decisions of 19-13 to Southern Methodist and 28-14 to Purdue, and defeating Indiana 20-6. MSU buried Indiana 53-6 last week, to go with victories of 21-7 over Stanford and 9-0 over Michigan.

Not since 1950 has Notre Dame lost as many as four games in one season and the most it has ever dropped since pioneering collegiate football in 1887 was five in 1933.

Unless that "explosion" occurs, this team's record may be as dismal.

After Michigan State comes Oklahoma in a nationally-televised piece de resistance at South Bend, then follow Navy, Pittsburgh, North Carolina, Iowa and Southern California—all, as is usual with spirits aroused to knock off the Irish. More teams are "up" when they meet Notre Dame than against any other foe on their schedule.

We've got the toughest schedule in Notre Dame history and we're trying to play it with sophomores," says Brennan.

Brennan lost all the regulars from the right side of his line by graduation and opponents have proven they know it by banging 775 yards through the Irish in three games.

Dodgers Get Enthusiastic Welcome In Tokyo

TOKYO (AP)—Brooklyn's baseball Dodgers, weary and five hours late, landed today to a rain-dampened but enthusiastic welcome for their barnstorming tour of Japan

A chartered Pan-American DC7C carrying the Dodgers from Honolulu was delayed more than 5 hours at Wake Island by a defective brake and a half-flat tire.

A crowd variously estimated at 3-4,000 mostly school children, waved flags and cheered loudly as the tired "Bums" filed from the plane.

The crowd was far smaller than that which last year greeted the touring New York Yankees on their arrival.

The DC7C carried 60 persons—25 players, 12 wives, top club and National League officials. In the big plane's hold were 40 sacks of baseball equipment which the Dodgers will use on their 17 game Japanese tour.

Yankees Get $8,715 Each From World Series

Dodgers Collect Record Losers' Share Of $6,934 Per Player

NEW YORK (AP) — The biggest chunk of the $758,561.63 World Series players pool went to 32 members of the world champion New York Yankees, who pocketed $8,715.76. Twenty - eight members of the Brooklyn Dodgers collected full shares of $6,934.34—a record losers' share.

The previous losers' high was picked up by the Cleveland Indians in 1954, with 34 full shares worth $6,712.50 each. That was the wealthiest four - game series on record, with the winning New York Giants claiming full shares of $11,147.80.

That series was played in New York's spacious Polo Grounds and Cleveland's mammoth Municipal Stadium—building a record players pool of $881,763.72. The players' pool is derived from the first four games each year.

A total of 332 players, managers coaches, batboys, ballboys, clubhouse attendants, trainers, groundskeeper and traveling secretaries dipped into the 1956 pool.

The Yankes taking a $50 top share cut by voting late - comer Enos Slaughter a higher percentage when the series was in progress, and the Dodgers split 70 per cent of the melon. Their share amounted to $520,993.15 with the Yankes getting $318,595.89 in the finale figures announced by Commissioner Ford Frick Wednesday for the seven-game series.

Cleveland and Milwaukee, the second-place clubs in the pennant races, divide 15 per cent of the pool ($56.892.12 each); the third-place Chicago White Sox and Cincinnati take 10 per cent ($37,928.08 each); and fourth-place Boston and St. Louis 5 per cent ($18,964.04 each).

Net receipts for the series totaled $2,183,254.59 compared with last year's $2,337,515.34 net. Of that, $1,180,204.76 went to the clubs and leagues and $327,488.20 to the commissioner's office. That left $675,561.63 for the players' pool, which was padded by $83,000 from pregame television programs.

Logart Loses Close Decision To Ortega

BY DAVE O'HARA

BOSTON (AP)—The high rating of Isaac (Kid) Logart as a contender for the world's welterweight championship still appeared justified today despite a 10-round decision loss to unranked Gaspar Ortega of Mexico.

The 23-year-old Cuban, rated the No. 3 contender by the National Boxing Assn. and Ring Magazine was upset by Ortega in a nationally - televised bout Wednesday night on some surprising vote-casting by the officials.

The referee and one judge voted for Ortega and the second judge a draw. Boxing writers had Logart the winner by a 5-1 margin, while several other veteran ring men also figured the Cuban had won.

Logart subjected Ortega to a heavy body battering from the opening bell, but the Mexican Indian's last-round rally gained him the votes of referee Eddie Curley and judge John Norton.

Ortegea, a 4-2 underdog outpointed by Logart last March, was cheered on by a "studio" crowd of 906 and landed enough solid blows against the stylish Logart to gain the necessry votes in the hardfought battle.

Logart, who had won nine straight, now has a record of 45 victories, five draws and six losses. Ortega, who claims he never has been knocked out, has won 35 of 42 bouts.

Curley voted 97-95 and Norton 97-96, both in favor of Ortega. Judge Harry Sundburg voted a draw 96-96.

Boston—Gaspar (Indian) Ortega, 148, Mexico, outpointed Isaac Logart, 146, Cuba, 10.

Michigan State, Ohio State Leading In Big 10 Statistics

CHICAGO (AP)—The "statistical championship" is gradually shaping up in Big Ten football with few surprises.

On the basis of the few conference games played, the two title favorites, Michigan State and Ohio State, are proving to be powerhouses.

In two games, the Spartans have averaged 315.5 yards with the Bucks second with 311 based on only one game Ohio State leads in rushing average with 282, followed by Minnesota with 223.5 in two games and MSU with 213.5.

Purdue, also with only one league game as a basis, shares the aerial lead with MSU, each with a 102 average.

Defensively, Michigan rates No. 1 on the strength of its showing against the Spartans despite a 9-0 defeat. The Wolverines, in their only Big Ten contest thus far, held MSU to a net gain of 143 yards. Iowa, however, has held two opponents to a 186.5 average and MSU has limited its two foes to an average of 188.

Ken Ploen, Iowa quarterback, is tops in total offense with 61 yards rushing and 118 passing for 179 and a 4.7 average per play. Clarence Peaks of MSU is second with 83-60—143 and a 6-yard average.

Ron Carlson of Wisconsin is ranked the No. 1 passer with his one-game performance of 4 completions in 6 attempts for 52 yards and 1 touchdown.

Mel Dillard of Purdue is first in rushing, gaining 120 yards in one game on 25 carries for 4.8.

However, the rushing sensation is Ohio State's Galen Cisco who picked up 98 yards in only 6 tries against Illinois for a 16.3 average.

Quinlan Begins Brown Practices

CLEVELAND (AP)—Skeets Quinlan, after several days of bookwork, started practicing with the Cleveland Browns' offensive unit Wednesday.

"He certainly has picked up things quickly," said Coach Paul Brown of the former Los Angeles halfback. "I think he can give us a lift right away."

Quinlan is rooming with quarterback Babe Parilli who has been briefing him on the Cleveland offensive style since he arrived here last Friday.

The new halfback was alternating with Ray Renfro as a flanker. The addition of Quinlan means that Preston Carpenter can concentrate on the left halfback spot where his running works out best.

Football Briefs

CHICAGO (AP)—Midwest football briefs:

Notre Dame — Don Lawrence, 212-pound Cleveland, sophomore, is slated to start at right tackle against Michigan State. He was injured the first week of fall practice and will be playing in his first game after starring in spring drills.

Michigan State — End Dave Kaiser still is bothered with a foot injury and fullback Don Arend, a sophomore, has an infected foot. Each will see only limited service at South Bend.

Northwestern—Jack Ellis may win the starting nod at quarterback over Dale Pienta against Michigan. The Wildcats have been working on a few new plays to spring.

Michigan — For the first time since hurting his hand, end Ron Kramer dropped back to do some punting.

Illinois — Freshmen emulated Minnesota's able tossers, Dick Larson and Bobby Cox, in drills on pass offense and defense.

Purdue — Two top-ranking replacements for injured Erich Barnes, Bill Jennings and John Brideweser, were on the casualty list as Purdue groomed for Wisconsin.

Wisconsin — Ron Carlson, who missed the first two games, did most of the work in a heavy passing rehearsal. Defense of Purdue fullback Mel Dillard's off-tackle and direct-line stabs also was stressed.

Ohio State—Along with defensive practice against Penn State plays, coach Woody Hayes had his Buckeyes trying their hand at stopping a few offensive maneuvers of Wisconsin, the Oct. 17 opponent.

Indiana—No. 2 center, Edd Wietecha, was lost for two weeks through recurrence of a back injury. A blood clot was removed from starter Joe Amstutz' foot but he will be ready to face Nebraska.

Iowa—The Hawketes were herded through a 1½ hour drill from the wing-T formation in preparation for Hawaii.

Marquette — Sophomore Ernie Safran and veteran Lee Hermsen are rehearsing duties at halfback for the College of Pacific encounter.

Senators' Directors To Air Moving Team

By The Associated Press

The board of directors of the Washington Senators huddle Friday to consider moving their franchise to Los Angeles or San Francisco or Louisville—or possbly not to move it at all.

Those three cities have made offers for the American League franchise, with most of the talk built around the West Coast, particularly Los Angeles.

Other American League club officials, however, aren't commenting on how they would vote on a Washington request to move. Cost seems to be the most important consideration.

Senator President Calvin Griffith, apparently seriously considering a shift to Los Angeles, said that city has offered to build a ball park and to provide the money to buy the Pacific Coast League franchise.

American League President Will Harridge said as far as he's concerned its still in a "talking stage.

At least one member of the Senators board has said he'd go to court, if necessary, to block a shift.

Among other Al owners and officials, Chuck Comiskey of the Chicago White Sox said a switch to the West Coast "would be a tremendous big move, travelwise and expensewise. I would want to see a lot of things in black and white."

Lee Decisions Favored Hicks For Olympics

By BERT MYERS

SAN FRANCISCO (AP) — An expected 'easy winner" in the featherweight division was eliminated and other solid favorites wondered today if they'd fall prey to upsets tha marked opening bouts in the U. S. Olympic Boxing Trials.

Francis Lee, rangy Navy champ from Pittsburgh, won a close decision from Seattle's Bobbie Hicks to snap the Northwestern figher's vicory string at 45. Lee scored a knockdown in he second round and battered his young opponent with repeated blows to the body. Hicks, a 17-year-old high school junior, had been the unanimous choice to win the Olympic featherweight berth.

Only about half the 105 entrans —represening service, collegiate, AU and Golden Gloves teams—saw action in the 30-bout card. The others, including many top-ranked battlers, fight onigh for semifinal spos.

The best fight Wednesday night eliminated a pair of slugging welterweights. Henry Brown, the Navy champ from Wichita, Kan., knocked out Willie Moran of Louisville with a third - round punch that cauht Moran off guard and sent him sprawling. on the mouth and nose and both

But Brown, bleeding from cuts eyes, was ruled out of further competition. A ring physician said his cus were too serious to permit him continung.

Upsets ousted two other favores. Sammy Rollins, rated one of New York's classiest lightweights, lost by a TKO to Fred Jackson of the Air Force after piling up a big lead.

Dean Plemmons, NCA flyweight king from the University of Wisconsin, dropped a decision to Hawaii's Ray Perez in a 112-pound quarter-final.

ILA Again Wins Waterfront Vote

Ousted Union Selected By Dock Workers

N5W YORK (AP) — The International Longshoremens Assn., 64-year-old orphan of organized labor, has scored a ballot box victory to retain its right to represent the 22,000 waterfront workers in the Port of New York.

The National Labor Relations Board announced today that longshoremen and other dock workers had voted 11,827 to 7,428 in favor of the ILA against the AFL-CIO International Brotherhood of Longshoremen (IBL).

This is the third time in three years that the ILA has beaten challenges by the IBL, set up by the AFL as a rival after the AFL ousted the ILA on charges of failing to rid itself of racket and crime elements. That was before the merger of the AFL and CIO.

The ILA victories in the two previous elections were by slim margins.

The ILA's counsel said the new victory should lead the AFL-CIO to "welcome back" the ousted union.

Results of the election, held at six polling places in New York City and on the northern New Jersey side of the port, were announced at 12:55 a.m. — about six hours after the polls closed.

In addition to the ILA-IBL tally, the NLRB reported 1,107 ballots challenged and to be adjudicated; 143 votes for no union; an 92 ballots declared void.

The orderly conduct of the election won praise from officials of the Police Department and the Waterfront Commission of New York Harbor.

A similar election between the two unions in December 1953 was marked by stabbings and brawls. The results of that election, in which the ILA was the apparent victor, were set aside by the NLRB. The NLRB ordered a new election, and in May 1954, the ILA won 9,407 to 9,144. The IBL resumed its organizing efforts and campaigning, and instituted Wednesday's new test of strength.

Ben Alexander Has Son

HOLLYWOOD (AP)—A son Webb Alexander, was born Wednesday to actor Ben Alexander and his wife Lesley at Hollywood Presbyterian Hospital. The child, the Alexanders' second, weighed 8 pounds 5½ ounces.

The father, who plays a police officer on Dragnet radio and television programs, was summoned to the hospital from a movie set, where he was playing the part of a deputy sheriff.

Candidate Is Denied A Place On Ballot

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP)—The Ohio Supreme Court Wednesday denied Floyd Hillman a place on the Nov. 6 ballot as a candidate for Scioto County engineer.

The 6-0 decision affirmed a writ of mandamus granted by an appellate court requiring the county board of elections to omit Hillman's name from the ballot.

O. Carson Barkiow, county engineer since 1937 and Democratic candidate for re-election, obtained the writ against his would-be Republican opponent. Barklow contended Hillman was ineligible as a candidate because he was not a registered surveyor at the time he acknowledged his candidacy.

Hillman was nominated by write-in votes in the May 8 primary election but did not obtain a surveyor's license until after paying his wiling fee for the candidacy. The court said this made him ineligible as a candidate.

In another action, the court affirmed for a second time an appellate court order for Tuscarawas County commissioners to provide court and jury room space for Probate Judge Ralph Finley

Finley brought the mandamus action to obtain space adjacent to the court's present quarters now occupitd by the county recorder.

The Supreme Court reversed the original order and returned the case for testimony on the need for additional space. After hearing the evidence, the appellate court granted the writ and a second appeal went to the Supreme court.

In other actions, the court:

Refused to review an appeal from lower courts in Belmont County which held for the removal of Joel T. Yost and C. C Sedgwick, Bellaire, as trustees of the estate of George W Yost, who died Dec. 13, 1931. Violet A. Moll, a beneficiary, brought the suit.

Unanimously reversed an $8,000 award to Albert Peleps, Youngstown, against Homer J. Oliver in a traffic accident suit and returned the case to the trial court for further proceedings. Peleps was injured in an accident at Johnson, Trumbull County, on Sept. 14, 1949.

Officials Close Library, Blaming Sonic Booms

MOJAVE, Calif. (AP) — Officials have closed Mojave's public library, blaming sonic booms from jet aircraft for damaging the building so badly it will have to be razed.

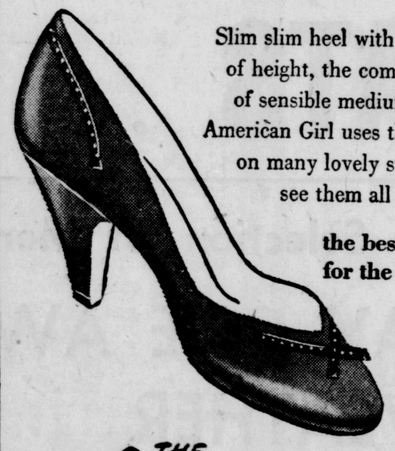

Public Works Director Chester James urged an investigation to determine whose planes caused the damage. The desert town of Mojave has a Marine air base at its outskirts, Edwards Air Force Base 10 miles southeast and a naval ordinance test station 25 miles north.

Leetonia-Poland Grid Tilt Heads Weekend District Schedule

Each Squad Has 4-1 Record

Both Teams Have Strong Defenses

IRONICALLY ENOUGH the two squads lost their only games in thrillers. Leetonia was edged 7-6 by undefeated, state-ranked East Palestine, and Poland was upset 7-6 by Columbiana. Both were opening game losses.

Skillet Meat Loaf Is Budget Meal

The young Tardrews of Madison, Wis., work hard. Phil, an Australian just earned his doctorate in biochemistry at the University of Wisconsin and hopes next year to continue as a project associate in his department. Joyce, a junior majoring in history, works 12 hours a week as faculty secretary.

Their time schedule and the record cost of food make entertaining a luxury. But they do have friends in for a meal every few weeks.

"On these occasions we forget budgeting and indulge in a roast," Phil explained. "Otherwise we use hamburger. What Australians call 'mince' is crushed hamburger fried with canned tomatoes and onion and served on toast."

Another Tardrew favorit is a skillet meat loaf which Joyce cooks on top of the stove and serves with a thick tomato gravy. Phil likes this adaptation of the "mince from "down under."

Skillet Meat Loaf

One slice dry white bread, ¼ cup milk, 1 beaten egg, 1 pound ground beef, 1 family-size can deviled ham, 2 tablespoons minced onion, ½ teaspoon salt, ⅛ teaspoon pepper and 2 tablespoons fat.

Soak break in milk, then squeeze out gently. Add bread to egg in large bowl. Stir in meat, ham, onion, salt and pepper. Shape into loaf. Heat fat in large skillet. Brown loaf on all sides in fat. Add 2 tablespoons of water to skillet and cook covered over medium heat about 45 minutes to 1 hour, adding another 2 tablespoons of water from time to time as needed to prevent loaf from burning.

Creamy Tomato Gravy

Two tablespoons minced onion, 2 tablespoons butter or margarine, 2 tablespoons flour, 1 No. 303 can tomatoes, ½ cup light cream 1 teaspoon salt, ⅛ teaspoon pepper.

Saute onions in butter or margarine in skillet until tender. Stir in flour and then tomatoes. Cook over low heat, stirring until smooth and thickened. Stir in cream and seasonings. Serve with the meat loaf.

Rip Van Winkle Couldn't Sleep with Nagging Backache

Now! You can get the fast relief you need from nagging backache, headache and muscular aches and pains that often cause restless nights and miserable tired-out feelings. When these discomforts come on with overexertion or stress and strain—you want relief—want it fast! Another disturbance may be mild bladder irritation following wrong food and drink—often setting up a restless uncomfortable feeling.

For quick relief get Doan's Pills. They work fast in 3 separate ways: 1. by speedy pain-relieving action to ease torment of nagging backache, headaches, muscular aches and pains. 2. by their soothing effect on bladder irritation. 3. by their mild diuretic action tending to increase output of the 15 miles of kidney tubes.

Chicken Peps Up Soup

Members of the town council in Stratford, Conn., enjoy dining at each other's homes. When they come to dinner at Ellworth Speer's house they get an outstandingly good chicken dish.

Of course, Councilman Speer's wife lends a hand in these dinners. Her two specialties are home-baked bread and spiced orange slices for the chicken.

Favorite Chicken Skillet

One-third cup sifted all-purpose flour, 1-3 cup milk, 1 egg, slightly beaten, ½ teaspoon salt, 1 teaspoon sesame seed, 2 2-pound frying chickens cut in serving pieces, ½ cup melted butter or margarine, 1 10½-ounce can condensed cream of celery soup, 1-3 cup milk, 1-3 cup sliced pimiento-stuffed green olives.

Combine flour, 1-3 cup milk, egg, salt and sesame seed. Beat thoroughly. Dip chickens in flour mixture. Cook in butter or margarine until browned on all sides. Combine remaining ingredients. Mix well. Add to chicken and cook covered over low heat, about 25-30 minutes, or until chickens are tender.

Mr. Speer suggests topping vegetables with this sauce:

Olive-Pecan Butter Sauce

One-quarter cup melted butter or margarine, 1 tablespoon prepared mustard, 2 tablespoons chopped pimiento-stuffed green olives, 1 tablespoon chopped chives, 2 tablespoons chopped pecans.

Combine butter or margarine and mustard. Mix well. Add remaining ingredients and heat to serving temperature, stirring occaasionally. Serve with vegetables, as desired.

Other than poachers, one of the most destructive elements for such American wildlife as rabbits, opossums, foxes and game birds are speeding autombile drivers. Kentucky estimates that 13,267 game birds and animals were killed by speeding drivers on their highways in 9 months.

Clams Flavor Chicken

With chicken plentiful, appetites picking up and school started, this inspired recipe is right in season.

Up New England way where clams are plentful, cooks use the sweet little mollusks in everything from chowder to pie. This delicious chicken and clam combination is one of the finest. For company serving, both chicken and sauce can be fixed ahead of time and put together in a serving casserole at the last minute. A final-warm-up in the oven will do it no harm.

Cape Cod Chicken

Three-pound broiler, cut up in serving pieces, ½ cup enriched flour, 1 teaspoon salt, ¼ teaspoon pepper, 1 teaspoon paprika, ⅛ teaspoon mace, ¼ cup butter or margarine, 1-ounce can sliced broiled mushrooms, one 10½ounce can minced clams, 1 cup rich milk or light cream.

Wash chicken and dry thoroughly. Place flour and seasoning in a paper bag. Shake each piece of chicken in the bag until well coated. Reserve remaining flour. Melt butter over moderate heat in a 9-inch heavy, covered frying pan. Brown chicken until golden brown. Cover pan and continue cooking until the chicken is tender about 20 minutes. Uncover and cook 10 minutes until chicken becomes crisp.

Meanwhile, empty contents of cans of mushrooms and clams into a saucepan and cook over moderate heat until hot, about 10 minutes. Gradually add milk or cream to 2 tablespoons of the remaining seasoned flour which has been placed in a small mixing bowl or cup. Pour milk and flour mixture slowly into clam mixture and cook until sauce thickens, stirring constantly. Remove chicken to platter or casserole and keep warm. Pour off all but 2 tablespoons of butter from the frying pan. Pour sauce into frying pan and stir until well blended. Spoon sauce over chicken and serve immediately.

Casseroles Stir Lagging Appetites

You can put a gleam in the eyes of those who have lagging appetites by presenting this unusual offering.

With a little ingenuity, you can use up that not-so-fresh bread and provide an easily digested dairy ensemble.

To prepare this cheese puff, use 4 slices day-old bread, ¼ lb. process American cheese, 1 3-oz. can sliced broiled mushrooms, 1 egg, ½ cup milk, 1 teaspoon minced onion, ½ teaspoon salt.

Cut bread in large circles to fit individual casseroles. Cut cheese in 8 thin slices. Top each crcle of bread with 2 slices of cheese. Drain mushrooms, reserving broth. Grease 2 casseroles and place 1 round of bread in each, cheese side up. Sprinkle with half of the mushrooms. Add another round of bread, cheese side up, and sprinkle with the remaining mushrooms. Beat egg. Add mushroom broth, milk, onion and salt. Carefully pour half of the mixture in each casserole. Let stand 1 hour. Bake in slow oven, 325 degrees F., 30 to 40 minutes or until puffed and brown. Serve immediately.

Makes 2 servings.

Mines at Yellowknife, in Canada's District of Mackenzie, produce gold molded there into 60-pound bricks. A ton of ore yields three-quarters of an ounce of the metal. Each brick, about the size of a building brick, is valued at $25,000.

Try Mushroom Thermidor Africa

Ruth and Edwin Parks are both students at Oregon State College at Corvallis, Ore. Ruth is in home economics, Ed's field work is in the forests and preserves of the northwest where he is earning his Masters degree in fish and game at the School of Forestry.

Ruth Parks often develops her own recipes, always restricted by food costs.

These favorites of Ruth and Ed Parks please their guests, too.

Mushroom Thermidor

Four tablespoons butter or margarine, 4 tablespoons flour, 1 teaspoon salt, ½ teaspoon dry mustard, ¼ teaspoon nutmeg, 1½ cups hot milk and mushroom liquid, ½ cup cream, 4-6 (5-ounce diced, boiled South African rock lobster tails, 1 4-ounce can drained sliced mushrooms, 2 tablespoons sherry or 2 teaspoons lemon juice, 1 cup buttered croutons.

Melt butter and margarine and stir in flour, salt and spices. Add hot milk and mushroom liquid while stirring over low heat. When sauce thickens, stir in cream. Add the diced, boiled lobster meat, mushrooms and sherry. Refill shells and dot with buttered croutons.

Place under broiler at some distance from heat until sauce bubbles and croutons are slightly browned.

Purple Plum Upside-Down Cake

One-fourth cup butter or margarine, ½ cup brown sugar, ¼ teaspoon cinnamon, 1 No. 2½ can purple plums, drained; 1 package yellow cake mix, about 30 blanched almonds.

Place butter, brown sugar and cinnamon in bottom of 11x7x2-inch baking dish. Halve and pit plums. Place 1 almond in center of each plum half. Arangre plums skin side up on brown sugar mixture. Prepare cake mix as label directs, using plum juice for liquid called for. Spread batter over plums and bake about 40 minutes or until cake is done at 375 degrees F. Remove from oven and place on cake rack. Let cook about 10 minutes then invert onto serving plate.

John Davis discovered the Falkland Islands in 1592. They are in the South Atlantic, about 250 miles east of the South American mainland.

Shrimp En Casserole Revives Waning Interest

Enthusiasm may wan for shrimp cocktail and french-fried shrimp after continually being thus served, but here is a delectable way in which to perk up interest in this seafood.

So quick and simple to prepare and yet so appetizing when you do little more than place it in a hot oven en casserole.

To prepare the shrimp, use ¼ cup butter, 1 cup chopped celery, ½ cup chopped green pepper, 2 teaspoons grated onion, 3 tablespoons flour, ¾ teaspoon salt, ⅛ teaspoon curry powder, few grains cayenne, 2 teaspoons Worchestershire sauce, few drops tabasco sauce, 1 tall can (1 2-3 cups) evaporated milk, 4 cups cooked, cleaned shrimp, ¼ cup grated parmesan cheese.

Melt butter in saucepan. Saute celery, green pepper and onion in butter. Add flour, salt, curry powder, cayenne, Worcestershire sauce and tabasco, mixing well. Add evaporated milk and cook, stirring constantly until smooth and thick. Remove from heat and add shrimp. Pour into buttered casserole. Top with grated parmesan cheese and bake in a 425 degree preheated oven for 20-25 minutes. Serve with rice.

Novel Jellied Salad Inspires Family Appetites

If you're wishing you could inspire the family to round out a full meal with a fruit dessert these warm evenings, try your hand at preparing this healthful artistry. Appeal is half the battle and when they bite into an out-of-the ordinary jellied salad they'll immediately be on their way to consuming the small initial portion and askng for seconds.

To prepare the jellied salad, use 1 package lime-flavored gelatin, 1 cup hot water, 1 cup ice water, ½ cup mayonnaise, 3 to 4 teaspoons prepared horseradish, 2 ripe pears, peeled and coarsely diced, 8 or 10 stuffed olives, sliced.

Dissolve gelatin in hot water; add ice water. Pour a layer about ½ inch deep into a lightly oiled 4-cup mold; chill. Cool rest of gelatin until partially thickened. Beat until fluffy. Gently beat in mayonnaise and horseradish. Fold in diced pears and sliced olives. Pour into mold on top of clear green layer. Chill. Turn out on platter an serve garnished with quarters of chilled fresh pears and sprigs of mint.

Take to table, along with a bowl of lettuce that is lightly dressed with French dressing. To serve, put lettuce on salad plate, and top with slice of jellied salad and a wedge of pear. Makes 5 or 6 servings.

Cool Lemon Snow Recalls Memories Of Winter

Nothing could be more suggestive of cold days of winter than a light airy dessert appropriately called snow.

Unflavored gelatin permits the fresh fruit flavor to be appreciated while a delicate custard sauce tops each serving.

To prepare the snow, use: 1 envelope unflavored gelatin, 1¼ cups cold water, ¾ cup sugar, ¼ teaspoon salt, 1 teaspoon grated lime or ¼ cup lemon rind lime or lemon juice, 2 unbeaten egg whites.

Sprinkle gelatin on ½ cup of the cold water in top of the double boiler to soften. Place over boiling water and stir until gelatin is dissolved. Remove from heat. Add sugar, salt, lime or lemon rind, lime or lemon juice and remaining ¾ cup cold water; stir until sugar is dissolved.

Chill until consistency of unbeaten egg white. (To chill quickly, half fill lower part of double boier with ice cubes and water; sprinke with 2 tablespoons salt. Set upper part of double boiler with gelatin mixture over ice water; chill until mixture is the consistency of unbeaten egg white, stirring frequently).

Add egg whites; beat with electric or rotary beater until mixture begins to hold its shape. Turn into a 6-cup mold or individual molds, or spoon into dessert dishes, chill until firm. Serve with Custard Sauce which utilizes remaining two egg yolks.

For the custard sauce, use: 1½ cups milk, 1 whole egg, 2 egg yolks, 3 tablespoons sugar, ⅛ teaspoon salt, 1 teaspoon vanilla.

Put milk, whole egg, egg yolks, sugar and salt in top of double boiler. Beat with rotary beater until blended. Place over hot, not boiling water and cook, stirring constantly, until mixture thickens slightly and coats the spoon. Remove from heat; add vanilla. Cool.

Switch Beef To Lamb

These grilled lamburgers are good — real good. They're just the thing for the Labor Day cookout. You can broil them at home, too, if you prefer.

It's a novel idea. Plain, ground lamb filled with mushrooms and onion, sandwich fashion. We discovered them on a party in Maine — delicious and quite a cut above the ordinary chopped meat dish. Yet easy and speedy.

Filled Lamburgers

One and one-half pounds ground lamb, 1 teaspoon salt, ¼ teaspoon pepper, ¼ teaspoon rosemary, 2 tablespoons softened butter or margarine, 2 tablespoons fat, 1 cup chopped onion, 3-ounce can chopped broiled mushrooms.

Place meat in a mixing bowl and combine with seasonings and butter. Mix well with large kitchen fork. Melt fat over moderate heat in a heavy skillet and cook onions until soft, about 5 minutes. Add contents of can of mushrooms and cook until liquid has evaporated, about 5 minutes longer. Divide meat into 8 thin patties, 4 inches round. Place mushroom mixture on four of the patties and cover with the remaining 4 patties. Press edges together to prevent stuffing from falling out. Broil under moderate heat for 5 minutes. Turn and broil for 5 minutes longer.

STATEUE TO 'OLD DRUM'

WARRENSBURG, Mo. (AP) — This town plans a statue to "Old Drum," the hound who inspired a famous speech in 1870 by Sen. George Graham Vest of Missouri. The Chamber of Commerce has started a campaign to raise $2,500 for it.

Vest's famous tribute to dogs was delivered in a damage suit in which he represented a man whose dog had been shot by a neighbor in Warrensburg. The jury deliberated two minutes and awarded Vest's client $500.

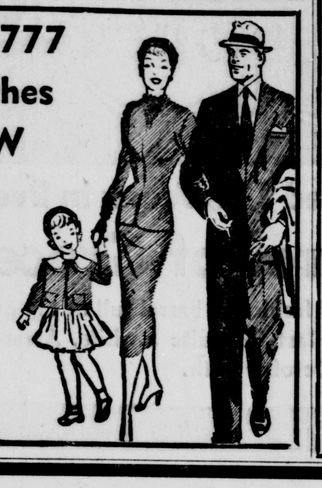

A bronze plaque will carry Vest's declaration that:

"A dog is the one absolutely unselfish friend that a man can have in this selfish world, the one that never deserts him and the one that never proves ungrateful or treacherous."

Low Calorie Recipes Are Tasty, too

Many readers have written for low-calorie recipes that really taste good. Here are three which we found quite pleasant despite their few calories. You'll probably like them.

Fresh Citrus Custard

Three tablespoons flour, teaspoon salt, 1 cup skimmed milk, scalded 1 tablespoon liquid no-calorie sweetner, 2 eggs, well beaten, ¼ cup fresh orange juice, 1 tablespoon fresh lemon juice ½ teaspoon grated orange peel.

Combine flour and salt and add to scalded milk in the top of double boiler. Add liquid sweetener and mix well. Gradually add beaten eggs and cook until mixture coats the spoon. Remove from stove and add orange and lemon juices and grated peel. Chill thoroughly. Serve with peeled orange cart-wheel slices for garnish. Serves 6.

One serving provides 58 calories without garnish, 72 calories with garnish.

Hollandaise Sauce

Two egg yolks, 1 tablespoon lemon juice, 3 tablespoons skim milk 1 teaspoon dry mustard, ¼ teaspoon paprika, ⅛ teaspoon salt.

Fill a small skillet half full of hot water. Place over low heat and put a small mixing bowl into it. In the bowl combine egg yolks and lemon juice. Add milk and stir. Add dry mustard, paprika and salt and mix well. Beat constantly with a wire whisk until thick and creamy. Makes 1 cup. One tablespoon measures nine calories.

Diet Dressing

One-half cup skimmed milk, ¼ cup lemon juice, paprika salt.

Rub a little garlic around a bowl. Combine skimmed milk and lemon juice. Add salt to milk before adding lemon to prevent curdling. Use paprika to color.

In one recipe there are 60 calories; one serving, 5 calories (1 tablespoon).

ASSETS TOP BILLION

CLEVELAND (AP) —Chesapeake & Ohio Railway announced Wednesday its assets in August passed the billion-dollar level for the first time in the railroad's 170 - year history.

Listing assets of $1,800,000,000 the road moves into a group of six other railroads which were billion-dollar corporations at the end of last year. They are the Pennsylvania, New York Central, Southern Pacific, Union Pacific, Santa Fe and Baltimore & Ohio.

Use Crabmeat In Stew

Every Friday night Mrs. J. J. McCoy of Closter, New Jersey, sets five places and then makes her mouth-watering quick crabmeat stew. Her husband and three grown children never miss that meal.

Mrs. McCoy's crabmeat stew is economical. She buys the family-size package of instant nonfat dry milk which makes 12 quarts of nonfat milk for as little as 7 cents a quart. Instant nonfat dry milk contains all the imortant nutirents of top quality pasturized milk — protein, calciu m and riboflaven. That is why it is known as "the heart of milk."

Mrs. McCoy's Crabmeat Stew

One quart liquefied instant nonfat dry milk, 1 (6-ounce) package chive cream cheese, 2 tablespoons butter or margarine, 1 medium-size onion, chopped, 1 (3-ounce) can (1-3 cup) sliced mushrooms, drained, 1 (7-ounce) can (1 cup) crabmeat, shredded, 2 tablespoons sherry wine, optional.

Pour liquefied instant nonfat dry milk to top of large double boiler. Add cheese. Cook over hot water, stirring occasionally, until the cheese melts. Melt butter or margarine in large skillet over low heat. Saute onions and mushrooms until onions are lightly browned and tender. Stir in crabmeat. Cook until heated. Stire crabmeat mixture and sherry (if desired) into nonfat dry milk mixture.
